Edited by Dr. Don Kistler

THE CHRISTIAN ON THE MOUNT

by Thomas Watson

It is unfortunate that the word "meditation" today conjures up New Age mysticism or self-contemplation. For the Puritans, it was the discipline of thinking deeply about God and His Word. To quote the author, meditation "is a holy exercise of the mind whereby we bring the truths of God to remembrance, and do seriously ponder upon them and apply them to ourselves."

This scarce work by the beloved Puritan Thomas Watson has been out of print since the early 19th century. It calls us to love God with our minds by thinking on things of eternal significance.

The retail price for this 132 page hardback book is $15.00.

LIGHT AND HEAT: The Puritan View of the Pulpit

by Dr. R. Bruce Bickel

We have lost the exalted view of the pulpit that was characteristic of the Puritan era. They held both the pulpit and the Word of God in high esteem. Preaching the Word was the highest calling imaginable.

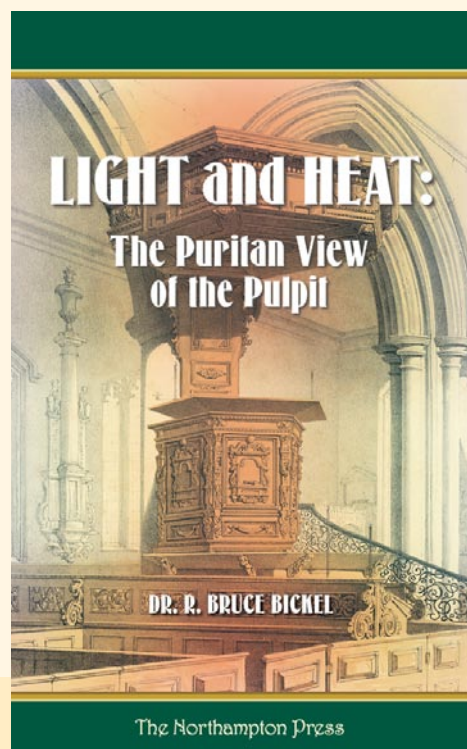

In this important work, Dr. R. Bruce Bickel shows what was admirable about their view of the pulpit and the preached Word.

We would do well to listen to his admonitions and to see how far removed we are today.

May God once again raise up a large number of "godly preachers."

The retail price for this 192 page hardback book is $15.00.
