Faith

Jeremiah Burroughs
(1599-1643)

Edited by Dr. Don Kistler

"Precious Faith" and "The Saints' Walk by Faith" are the scarcest books by this great Puritan preacher to find on the antiquarian market, and now they are available for the first time since the 17th century. Retypeset and edited, they are combined here into one volume.

"Faith resigns itself unto and rolls itself upon Christ, and rests upon Him for all the good that God offers in Christ, so as it is willing to venture itself; to venture all the good it has and all it hopes for. It is willing to venture it all upon grace that it sees in Jesus Christ, and it satisfies itself in Christ alone. This is the nature of faith in general."

— Jeremiah Burroughs
