GRACE & TRUTH

Rare Sermons By
JONATHAN EDWARDS

Compiled and Edited by Dr. Don Kistler

When Jonathan Edwards died in 1758 he left behind nearly 1100 sermon manuscripts. Many of those are housed at the Beinecke Rare Book Room at Yale University. The two-volume edition with which most people are familiar contains only sixty-six of those sermons.

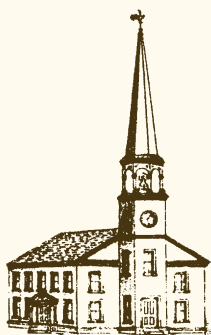

Here are fifteen sermons by this great New England preacher, thirteen of which have never been published before. His sermon on John 3:16 is a masterpiece. Drink deeply from this Puritan's well.

"I am pleased to see another volume of sermons by Edwards edited by Don Kistler, who has devoted decades of his life to making "America's Augustine" available to those thirsting for Christian knowledge.

Don works assiduously and lovingly to present Edwards the preacher, and we are all indebted to him for it."
